

2023 COUNTRY GROUP OF THE YEAR
Josie Music Awards

Management/Booking/Press

Christine Radlmann 201.978.6161
thesouthpawsound@gmail.com

Social Media

@SouthpawCity
www.southpawcity.com

Modern Country Music With an East-Coast Vibe

Southpaw is a collaboration of three New Jersey-based musicians, including lead singer Christine Radlmann and multi-instrumentalists Sean Garnhart and Colin McConnell.

Accolades

- Josie Music Awards (JMA), Nashville, TN
- 2024 Fan's Choice, Duo or Group
- 2023 Country Group of the Year
- 2023 Modern Country Song of the Year
- 2022 Female Country Vocalist of the Year

Jack Daniels/iHeart Radio Battle of the Bar Bands

2021 Top-ten national finalist

Playing Everywhere

Southpaw's music is available on every major streaming platform and has been played on more than 400 radio stations worldwide. Their single "Undiscovered" is featured in season two of the Amazon Prime original series "American Rust." Southpaw music is distributed through ADA/Warner via label Deko Entertainment.

Live Performances

Southpaw is known for high-energy performances and has been showcased at large festivals and music venues from the Mid-Atlantic to Nashville and Florida, including the official Luke Combs pre-show in Philadelphia in July 2023 and main stage headlining act at the 2023 JMA Fest in Nashville. The band plays a mix of country music favorites and original songs.

Members of the band have appeared as guest artists on various radio interviews and social live streams. Christine Radlmann was featured in national news media in a feature segment by NewsNation in November of 2022.

The group recently emceed and performed at the Southern Fellow Showcase in Nashville, which featured top rising talent from Nashville and along the east coast.

Releases

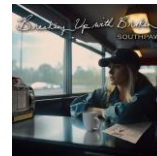

"Tumbleweeds"

Single
1/7/25

"Drugstore Candy"

Album
4/19/24

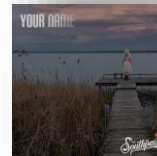

"Breaking Up With Broken"

Single
1/19/24

"Three More Hours"

Single
4/28/23

"Your Name"

Single
11/11/22

"Whiskey & Whine"

Single
7/4/22

"Unhitched"

Acclaimed debut album
2/14/21